

Privacy Policy

Launch Learning Centre (27677893882) has created and implemented a Privacy Policy in line with Australian Privacy Principles set out in the Australian Privacy Act 1988. We understand the importance of protecting personal information and value your privacy.

Our policy outlines the type of information we collect and hold, how we collect and hold this information, how we use this information and why we collect this information. In addition, our policy outlines how you will be made aware of any changes to the policy and who you can contact should you have questions or concerns or should you need to change personal information.

Information we collect:

We will collect personal information that includes (but is not limited to):

- Name
- Age
- Email address
- Contact details
- Student's grade level & birthdate

Why we collect information:

Collecting personal information allows Launch to communicate with customers, book students into programs, understand student needs, meet the needs of students, match students to appropriate groups and programs, assess and monitor students and personalise our services.

How we collect information:

At Launch we will collect personal information when:

- You purchase a product or service
- You make an enquiry about a product or service, via our website, on the phone or in person

- You provide us with information
- You provide feedback
- We are required by law to do so

Marketing:

We may send you marketing communication to promote our business, products and services. We do not send any marketing material to students. Consent is to be given prior to receiving marketing communication, we comply with the Spam Act 2003 and opt out options are available.

Data Storage and Security

At Launch we use the appropriate physical, digital, managerial and security systems to store your personal information and to protect it against unauthorised access, destruction or disclosure.

If we no longer require your personal information for the purpose for which we obtained it, we will permanently remove any information that could be used to identify you, to prevent future re-identification. We will retain your information only for as long as required by law or our procedures.

Please note that we will never sell, rent, or trade your personal information to any other entity.

We will not share your personal information with any third party outside of Launch, unless required to by law.

Information is only permitted to be accessed by those employed at Launch Learning Centre who undertake training in our Privacy Policy.
